

Politics 102
Fall 2013 Exam #2
50 minutes

- Write your name on the front cover.
- Write your answers in pen.
- Do not rip out any pages from your exam booklet.
- Do not use books, notes, phones, audio devices or other aids, or cheat in any way. Students caught violating the Academic Integrity Code will automatically fail the course and be reported to the academic integrity process.

Part 1: Short answer / identification. 10 points. Choose any 5.

- Identify the concept
- Give a real international political example that illustrates it.

1. Positive externality
2. Negative externality
3. International Institution
4. Self-enforcing contract
5. Mercantilism
6. Comparative advantage
7. Neoliberalism
8. Public good

Part 2: Essay. 5 points. Choose 1.

- Your essay should be a well-organized argument. Write a clear thesis statement near the beginning setting out your argument, and use the rest of the essay to provide facts and logic that support your analysis.
 - Refer to assigned readings where appropriate.
1. Why did countries cooperate to promote trade more effectively in the second half of the 20th century than during prior periods?
 2. Does the structure of the international political system contribute to wealth inequality across rich and poor countries?