

Politics 102
Spring 2014 Exam #3

- Write your name on the front cover.
- Write your answers in pen.
- Do not rip out any pages from your exam booklet.
- Do not use books, notes, phones, audio devices or other aids, or cheat in any way. Students caught violating the Academic Integrity Code will automatically fail the course and be reported to the academic integrity process.

Part 1: Short answer / identification. 10 points. Choose any 5.

- Identify the concept
- Give a real international political example that illustrates it.

1. Delegation
2. Norms
3. Individual petition
4. Proliferation
5. Globalization
6. Neoconservative
7. Hypocrisy
8. Boomerang model

Part 2: Essay. 5 points. Choose 1.

- Your essay should be a well-organized argument. Write a clear thesis statement near the beginning setting out your argument, and use the rest of the essay to provide facts and logic that support your analysis.
 - Refer to assigned readings where appropriate.
1. Will the US effort to limit the future spread of nuclear weapons be successful?
 2. Will the rise of China as a world power lead to greater conflict between the United States and China?